

It's going to be OK.. right?

National maternal and neonatal health safety collaborative

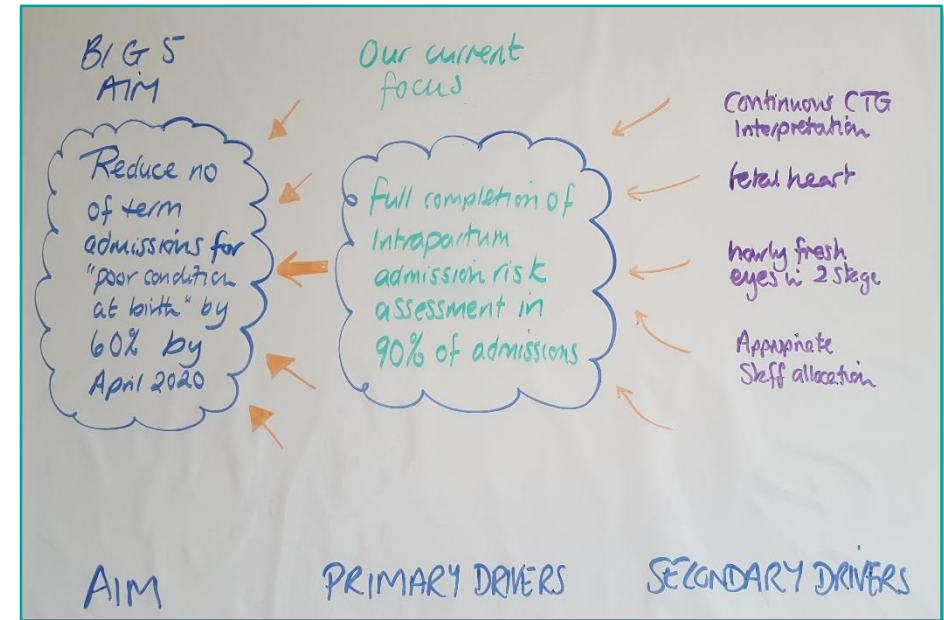

In the past year 13 babies at term have been admitted with low Apgar or poor gases which could mean brain damage and developmental delay

Lets see if someone back
at base can answer our question...

Good idea!
That means we can keep on with our work here today....

Q cards
can help us
move
on...

